Men of His Word

Rochester 2022

Keynote Speaker: Pastor Joel Heckendorf

Pastor at Light of the Valleys Lutheran Church in Reno, NV.

Speakers/ Sessions

- Pastor Joel Heckendorf - Serving Together

This session will open the eyes of attendance to realize that they all are "leaders" in carrying out the functions of ministry, no matter what position they hold in the congregation. God's people can and need to "serve together" without necessarily serving together on boards, committees, etc.

- Dr. Kevin Peil - Science, Scripture and Salvation - The Case for Creation

This presentation will provide a broad overview of the latest in regard to fossils, genetics, and dating techniques and how these all provide strong support for a young earth created by God thousands, and not billions, of years ago

- Pastor Nathan Wordell - Gender & Jesus: Understanding & Responding to the Transgender Topic

With little knowledge of gender and a lot of knowledge about Jesus, we can show transgender individuals how much Jesus loves them. What is transgender? We'll aim to understand the terms, practices, and beliefs regarding the topic of gender. What does the Bible say? We'll aim to understand how the Bible's message applies to those who struggle with gender identity.

- Josh Birkholz - Giving is a Ministry!

Sometimes, when we think of ministry, we think of the brave evangelist in the field, the skilled orator opening God's word to the people, or the charity worker in a foreign land providing living water along with drinking water. But the ministry equation is so much more. God has blessed all of us with the perfect gifts for his purposes. As Christians skilled in business, finance, resource management, or other professions, our role as a patron is a role of ministry. Join Josh Birkholz, a global leader in philanthropy programs and donor to God's work, as he discusses how giving is part of God's ministry equation.

Speakers/ Sessions

- Pastor Jon Enter - Talking with Teens...

Only getting one-word answers from your teen? At a loss on how to help your friend who has a struggling relationship with their child? Want to give solid advice to your grandchild about college? In this session you will hear practical advice and learn new strategies to build up the student that you love through their rapidly shifting teen years.

- Pastor Dan Schmidt - Battle Buddies

God's word reveals that we're in a spiritual war against the Devil, the sinful influences of the world around us and our own corrupted flesh. This is a war we are not meant to fight alone and that's why we all need a Battle Buddy, a spiritual accountability partner who can watch our back and back us up. Together we'll learn how to identify, develop and cultivate strong spiritual bonds with fellow Christians so that we can support each other in our spiritual battles

- Pastor Bill Limmer - The Conquering Power of Loving Your Community

Focus our evangelism efforts on getting them to come to us and be for us, let's show that we are for them! A church can be for their communities through partnerships, service opportunities, and being active in the community that God has placed them. Through this session, you'll discover and share ways you can reach your community as the hands and feet of Christ.

- Pastor Ben Blumer - Marriage on Purpose

We all want to have a thriving, healthy relationship with our wives. And yet, that type of marriage doesn't happen by accident or merely because you have good intentions. A great marriage takes a deliberate plan and strong foundation. The goal of this workshop is to help men better understand the foundation for marriage and to begin putting together an intentional plan.
